Prepare for Fishing.

Superintendent R. A. Hawkins of th Packers' Ilwaco interests, is in the city. Mr. Hawkins says preparations for the coming fishing season are in full swing at Hwaco. Mending and tarring web and driving trap piles are the order of the day. The magnificent weather of the past two weeks has permitted steady driving on traps during that time. The work is principally replacing piles which have been broken off by drift logs, and removing trans to new locations, necessitated by shifting sands and currents.

A Six-Cent Marvel.

"Wonderland," the annual publication of the Northern Pacific railway, is this year a truly wonderful book, telling in a happy manner the story of a remarkable country. Some of the subjects treated are "The Travels of Father Hennepin," "The Maudau Indians of the Upper Missouri," "Irrigation in the Northwest," "Yellowstone Park," "The Columbia River, the So-Called Oregon, the Great River of the West." It is replete with choice new illustrations and will repay perusal.

Six cents in postage sent with the proper address to Charles S. Fee, St. Paul, Minn., will obtain the book free by mail.

Smallpox Again.

Two mild cases of smallpox were placed under quarantine yesterday by Health Officer Dr. Pilkington. One is Alice Shroeder, aged 15, living on Irving avenue between Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets. Her mother, younger sister and brothers are quarantined with her. Alfred, her older brother, is not staying at home at present. The only other case, that of Chris Simonson, aged 16, whose father is the proprietor of the Scandia saloon. is at Harrison avenue and Thirtyfourth street. There are five other children in the family, all of whom were vaccinated yesterday. The origin of these cases has not been satisfactorily accounted for, but it is noteworthy that they occur in the same district in which nearly all the cases of infectious disease have flourished since the epidemic began last fall.

Body Will Be Held.

In response to the telegram sent by Los Angeles announcing the death of signs. The price is 3 dozen for 25c. Frank Burns, two answers were received here yesterday. One of them It is rumored that an attempt will soldiers' cementery as he, Bourquin, be made from an unexpected source to was unable to stand the expense of the remains to be seen. The slot machine gard to his death. The last telegram arrival. In accordance with this plan no arangements for the funeral have been made.

Bail Not Secured.

District Attorney is investigating the evidence taken in the justice court in the case of the state vs. Paddy Lynch, and in a few days will file an information in the circuit court, which will have the effect of placing the and all kinds of ladies and children's matter of ball within the jurisdiction furnshing goods at sale prices. Welch Ross: "Seattle is worse off than we to Judge McBride at St. Helens to furnish ball, with John Kenney and Charles Wise as sureties, the judge ruled that he could not make an order except when acting as a magistrate in Clatsop county, as the information and not yet been filed in the circult court, though a transcript had been. Yesterday, Mr. Lynch's attorney, F. D. Winton, made application to Justice Goodman to accept a lower bond than was formerly required, but the court insisted on a bond of $3000 with approved sureties or a cash ball of $2000, which has not yet been furnished.

Found Guilty as Charged.

Alex Olof, better known as "Russian Alex," was tried yesterday morning before a jury in the court of the justice of the peace for having fish in his possession during the close season. It took the jury 10 minutes to return a verdict of guilty as charged, and immediately thereafter Justice of the Peace Goodman imposed a fine of $59 and costs upon defendant. Not being in a position to pay the fine, Alex was taken to jail to serve out the sentence, The jury which tried the case was com posed of the following: Thomas Fannon, P. H. Taylor, Henry Speilmeir and Gus Fisher.

In Sunny California.

Mrs. William Ross and daughter, Beasie, are enjoying the balmy California climate in Sierra Madre, in the foothills near Pasadena. Miss Violet Bowlby is now visiting with them, after attending school at Los Angeles. Recently they entertained also Miss Halstead, George Warren and the Misses Sue H. and Floretta Elmore. The Misses Elmore are expected home in a few days, after a short stop at San Francisco, Mrs. Ross will return about April 16, leaving Miss Bessle at Palo Alto.

Will Bowl at Salem.

The following bowlers went to Portland last night: M. F. Hardesty, P. Peterson, B. J. Pye, W. A. Mathena, James Keating, Frank Woodfield and Horace Thing. It was the intention of the team to play at the Commercial club alleys last night, but owing to the late hour in reaching there it was not possible for the contest to take place. Tonight the players will be in Salen to try their skill with the Illinee club and a special from the capital last night states that in a local contest last night between two Ilihee teams of 12 picekd men, a team to bowl the Astoria Commercial club was selected as follows: J. J. Murphy, B. O. Shucking, C. D. McNary, J. D. Sutherland, H. spected citizen of Astoria, died at 5 P. Olinger and George Hoyt. A total score of 1005 points in four games was made by this team.

Short-Lived Desertion.

Sergeant E. Phillips arrived on last night's train from Knappa having in charge Private Thomas E. Clark, who deserted from Fort Stevens less than 24 hours before. Clark ways he was drunk and did not know what he was doing, but he knew enough to wear civillan clothes, and, in making his prep arations he appropriated a pair of Cao to San Francisco on the American tala Steeles' trousers and various other articles, which a strict sense of honestly would have impelled him to leave behind. He footed it up to Knappa, and when the sergeant arrived there on last evening's train he almost ran became identified with John West at into his arms. He will be taken back to the fort on the Howard this morn-Later he took a homestead on ing. His little thefts will probably Grays river, and was associated with have the effect of doubling his sentence Captain Von Rehfield in steamboating which will be something like three years in limbo.

On Shoalwater Bay.

W. A. Carruthers of Oysterville, Wash., was in the city yesterday. Mr. Carruthers is largely interested in the oyster business. The season for oyster planting opens April 1 and lasts until June 15. During this time the "young growth" in the deeper waters, reserved from private ownership by the state, are permitted to be tonged up for planting on the private beds, Under the new law oystermen nivst pay the state for this seed at the rate of 10 cents per sack of 120 pounds. Formerly it was free. This will have a tendency to slightly raise prices. The severe storm of a few weeks ago did not result in so much damage to the beds by drifting as was thought at the time.

From Seattle.

J. T. Ross, who returned vesterday from Seattle, says business is flourishing in the sound city, though the street car tieup makes things decidedly inconvenient. It is hoped to reach a settlement very shortly. Said Mr. are for depot appointments, as passengers alight in the open street. The city expects soon to boast of firstclass facilities in this respect, and the rallroads have obtained leave to enter the ctiy through a tunnel, which will make possible the construction of a splendid underground station. A number of mammoth buildings are under way or projected, notably the new government building, the plans for which are to be much enlarged and include the addition of an assay office. The building is to cost $1,000,000. Mining is again at fever heat, th
